About Me

After finishing my degree, I was not sure what direction to head. At first, I thought of going into Data Analysis, but, when one of my courses I was taking to get into the field included a section on Python for Machine Learning, I instantly knew I had to be a developer. Since beginning, I have taken many courses and built many solo projects. I have since developed my skills in JavaScript, NodeJS, Express, and React.

Technologies and Languages

- Programming Languages: Python, JavaScript, HTML, CSS
- Frameworks: Express, React, Bootstrap, NodeJS
- Tools: SQL, Git, Github

Education

- Google Data Analytics Prof. Cert., Google Oct 2021
- B.Sc. Economics, Towson University, Towson, MD June 2019

Projects

- Photography Site (Live Site) (React): This site was built in React and uses Material UI components to display photography. Links back to a site to purchase prints.
- Portfolio: Features include a dark mode and contact sheet implemented in JavaScript. The site is built from the ground up with HTML, CSS, and Bootstrap.
- Machine Learning Chatbot (Live Site) (Flask): The bot is trained on the scripts from three games. It will respond conversationally as the character. The site uses Flask with Python for the backend.
- Will it Rain Today? (API): Used open weather and Twilio APIs to check the weather for a given location, and send you a text if it is going to rain that day
- Amazon Price Tracker (API): Used BeautifulSoup and SMTP APIs to get the price of a product on Amazon and send an email to a given account if the price drops to a specified amount
- Sentiment Predictor (Machine Learning): Cleaned raw text review data for machine learning, split data into test and training sets, and built Random Forest Classifier which evaluated to 74% accuracy
